PRA and Chapter #34 Events

Sept. 8 & 9 Airport Appreciation Days at the Putnam Co. Airport at Greencastle, IN.

Hot Rod show, Young Eagle rides, breakfast and lunch served.

Polish up your gyro and bring it down to the north end for display.

Sept. 9th. Chapter meeting of Indiana Rotorcraft Association at the north end of the airport. 1:00.

August Meeting

Rodney opened the meeting at 1:07.

Joe Stanley says that the treasury has $3275.36 in it as of that day.

As I stated last month, the Ken Brock Award was won by Paul Bergen Abbott. Joe paid Gary for the purchase of the plaque.

We had a discussion about the attendance at OshKosh and the PRA convention.

J.R. brought over $20 to help pay for the electric use at the hangars.

Rodney adjourned the meeting at 1:20.

Around the Hangar

We have had some really beautiful Sundays for flying.

Last Sunday Warren SOLO-ED! Congratulations, Warren. Now you be careful.

Warren Flies Alone

Happy Man

Harlan and Jim as well as Gary and Warren have been there almost every Sunday. Harlan missed last week, because he needed to take Pat to an electric guitar get-together at St. Louis.

Sunday before last Harlan & Jim landed at Patrum's and got the 50 cent tour of the place by Norm.

Last Sunday we gave Art the award that was presented to him at the convention. Thanks again, Art.

You all take care. Fly Safe,
Sue

Baby's Ears

During a commercial airline flight a Navy pilot was seated next to a young mother with a babe in arms.

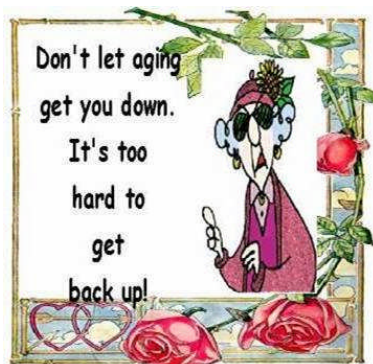

When the baby began crying during the descent for landing, the mother began nursing the infant as discreetly as possible.

The pilot pretended not to notice and, upon debarking, he gallantly offered his assistance to help with the various baby-related impedimenta.

When the young mother expressed her gratitude, the pilot responded, "Gosh, that's a good looking baby...and he sure was hungry!"

Somewhat embarrassed, the mother explained that her pediatrician said nursing would help alleviate the pressure in the baby's ears.

The Navy pilot sadly shook his head, and in true pilot fashion exclaimed, "Wow! And all these years I've been chewing gum."

Do I Know You?

A guy goes into a grocery store and notices an attractive woman waving at him. She says hello.

He's rather taken aback because he can't place where he knows her from.

So, he says, "Do you know me?" To which she replies, "I think you're the father of one of my kids."

Now his mind travels back to the only time he has ever been unfaithful to his wife and says, "My God, are you the stripper from my bachelor party that I made love to on the pool table with all my buddies watching while your partner switched my naked butt with crisp celery stalks?"

She looks into his eyes and says calmly, "No, I'm your son's teacher."

Painful

A little old man shuffled slowly into an ice cream parlor and pulled himself slowly, painfully, up onto a stool. After catching his breath, he ordered a banana split.

The waitress asked kindly, "Crushed nuts?"

"No," he replied, "Arthritis."
